

NEWS RELEASE

Fletcher Building Virtual Investor Day

Auckland, 27 April 2021: Fletcher Building will hold a virtual investor day for investors and analysts on Wednesday 26 May 2021.

Presentations will commence at 11:00am NZT and will conclude at approximately 4:00pm NZT. The agenda will include Group strategy and financials, presentations by each of the Divisional Chief Executives (including virtual site tours) as well as presentations by our Chief Health and Safety Officer and Chief People and Communications Officer. Live Q&A sessions will take place following each presentation.

To register for the event and to watch the webcast live, please access the following microsite: <https://fletcherbuildinginvestorday.gcs-web.com>

Investors and analysts will be able to ask questions live via the webcast facility. While every endeavour will be made to answer all the questions that are submitted, this may not be possible due to time constraints, and is at the discretion of Fletcher Building management.

The microsite will be available for a replay of the presentations.
